

Les équipementiers de la restauration hors-domicile

Paris la Défense, January 28, 2019

N/Ref. 19.01.018/SYNEG
ODA/FLC

COMMUNIQUÉ

Jean-Michel SOTO, new SYNEG Chairman

Jean-Michel SOTO was elected Chairman of the Syndicat National de l'Équipement des Grandes cuisines (SYNEG) during the Board of Directors' meeting held on 28 January 2019. He succeeds Pascal MARCHAND who has been in office since 2016, and who extended his mandate by a few months following the 2018 GA to finalize the union's new roadmap.

Jean-Michel SOTO, 46, has been Chief Executive Officer of ROSINOX and FRIGINOX (ALI group) since 2016. Graduate of the Pau business school, he has a wide range of experience, both in the industrial and service sectors, in multinationals such as ISS Facility Services, JABIL and VALEO.

Mr. SOTO declares: "Following on from the actions carried out and succeeded by Pascal MARCHAND, SYNEG is continuing its evolution to support and assist its members in their various markets".

-----
About SYNEG: Aa professional association, SYNEG brings together and represents manufacturers of equipment for catering in France: preparation, cooking, refrigeration, ventilation, handling, distribution, bars, offices, wine storage, laundry, water and waste treatment.

syNEG@syNEG.org - www.syNEG.org